

Peter and the Wolf

Glen Rock families with children ages 5 and up have a very special opportunity to enjoy a performance of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" performed by members of the NJ Symphony Orchestra at the Library on Saturday, May 3 at 2:00 or at 3:30. Featuring instruments of the woodwind family – the flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon and French horn, the quintet demonstrates not only how well the instruments play together, but also what makes them each unique. This program is made possible by a grant from Camp Yaw Paw. Registration is required.
